4. Declaring the Group During the Admissions Process

When completing the Admission Data section, each applicant wishing to benefit from Together at AHA must enter, in the designated scholarship/benefit field, the name of the other applicant or the names of the other two applicants with whom they are applying.
All group members must identify one another in this field.
Example for a group of 3:

- Applicant A identifies Applicant B and Applicant C.
- Applicant B identifies Applicant A and Applicant C.
- Applicant C identifies Applicant A and Applicant B.

Example for a group of 2:

- Applicant A identifies Applicant B.
- Applicant B identifies Applicant A.

This declaration enables AHA to identify and verify the group in Classter.

5. Verification of Previous Applications

For the purposes of this policy, an applicant is considered to have already applied through Classter if an application for that applicant was registered in Classter before they applied for the Together at AHA Scholarship.
Therefore, an applicant whose application for the 2027 intake was already registered in Classter cannot subsequently join a Together at AHA group and receive the scholarship.

AHA will verify compliance with this condition by checking the information available in Classter.

6. The 30-Day Application Period

All group members' applications must be registered in Classter within a maximum of 30 calendar days from the date on which the first applicant submits their application.
The application date of the first applicant is the date on which their application is registered in Classter.

7. Application of the Scholarship

The scholarship will be applied after the Study Agreement has been signed.
The scholarship applies regardless of whether the applicant chooses:

- to pay the tuition fee in full; or
- to pay the tuition fee in instalments.

The payment method selected by the applicant does not change the applicable tuition fee after the scholarship has been applied. The scholarship and the resulting tuition fee will be reflected in the applicant's financial records.

8. Group Ineligibility

A group is not eligible for the Together at AHA Scholarship if:

a) it does not consist of at least 2 applicants;

b) the applicants are not applying for the same 2027 intake;

c) the 30-day application period has expired;

11. Withdrawal of a Group Member Before Signing the Study Contract

11.1. Voluntary Withdrawal

If a group consists of 2 applicants and one applicant voluntarily withdraw from the group at any time before signing the Study Contract, the deposit paid by the withdrawing applicant will not be refunded, in accordance with the applicable pre-enrolment agreement

The applicant remaining in the group will no longer be eligible for the reduced Early Bird tuition fee and will instead be charged the Standard tuition fee, subject to the other applicable admission and enrolment conditions.

11.2. Withdrawal Due to Failure to Pass the Baccalaureate Examination

If an applicant is unable to continue the admissions process because they have failed the Baccalaureate examination, the deposit paid by that applicant will be refunded in accordance with the provisions of the applicable pre-enrolment agreement.
