Get real experience!

Gain international experience in hospitality by studying abroad at Swiss Hotel Management School. The blend of academic and practical learning is designed to fully prepare you for a rewarding career in hospitality, events management, luxury, and more.

With a hospitality education, learn skills such as:

- Cross-cultural communication
 - Leadership skills
 - Business concepts
 - Spa and guest relations
 - Service excellence

These skills are more in-demand than ever before, across all industries and sectors. This means that the skills you develop here are applicable no matter what career path you choose.

Live in the heart of Europe

Advance your skills in a former Palace Hotel, which is now the Leysin campus of Swiss Hotel Management School. Experience real Switzerland while you live in a village nestled in the Swiss Alps. Foster relationships with one of the most international communities in the country.

Notably, Switzerland ranks among the top 10 safest countries globally, ensuring your peace of mind throughout your stay. Outside of Switzerland, hot destinations such as Paris or Milan are an easy train ride away. Between classes and activities, you are free to explore Europe and experience the adventure of a lifetime.

This is your unique journey!
